Did you forget to cash your check listed above? It is now stale dated so please do not cash it.

Unclaimed property law requires State Farm to transfer funds from deposit, account, shares, or other interest to the State Treasurer if the funds remain outstanding. To expedite claiming your funds, visit www.LetterReply.com/StateFarm utilize the Control Number and PIN provided above, and complete the online form. Funds can also be claimed by completing, signing, and returning this notice to the address listed below in the provided envelope, by faxing a copy to 913-273-2177, or by emailing a copy to StateFarmUP@up-letter.com. A response is required by September 20, 2021.

If no response is received by September 20, 2021, the property will be placed in the custody of the State Treasurer no later than September 31, 2021, to whom all further claims shall be directed. The state will remain the custodian for presumptively abandoned property remitted to the state. Property that is not legal tender of the United States may be sold by the State Treasurer.

If you are the owner or have rights to these funds, please mark the appropriate selection below or request a replacement at www.LetterReply.com/StateFarm.
